

A current events program at Norway Memorial Library
Tuesday, May 6th
Doors open at 6:30 pm

LEARN LOCAL, GROW LOCAL, EAT LOCAL

Russell Libby
Executive Director of M.O.F.G.A. to speak at 7:00 about

Our Next Agriculture: Building Deep Connections

Russell has been Executive Director of MOFGA since 1995, but involved with the organization since the first Common Ground Fair in 1977 where he witnessed a connection between local, organic food and a strong Maine economy. He has led the organization during a decade of growth including its move to the Common Ground Education Center in Unity. Russell planted his first garden after getting free seeds at the end of fourth grade.

Panel

Jeanette Baldrige, LolliePapa Farm & CSA
Claire Gelinas, Fare Share Market
Mike Twitchell, Oxford Hills Food Cooperative
Pat Verrill, Harvest Moon Produce & Fox School Farmer's Market,
Ken Morse, Healthy Oxford Hills & Farm to School

The panelists will speak briefly about their involvement in a variety of area programs, farms, markets, and resources that contribute to the network of locally produced foods available to residents of Oxford Hills. They will take questions from those attending and share their experience and knowledge.

Information

Producers and purveyors of local foods will provide information about their farms and products. Including:

A Wrinkle in Thyme Farm
LolliePapa Farm & CSA
Oxford Hills Food Cooperative
Harvest Moon Produce
Fox School Farmers Market
Norway Farmer's Market
Jackson's Sugar House & Farm Stand
Little Falls Farm
Fare Share Market
Crystal Spring Farm

If you are a producer or seller that would like to provide information about your farm or products, please call the library at 743-5309 to arrange to do so,

LEARN LOCAL, GROW LOCAL, EAT LOCAL